Sunday, 12/19 at 11am and 4pm pacific – “O Little Town of Bethlehem” – a radio documentary featuring the sounds of Bethlehem and using the classic carols to bring to life the story of Jesus’ birth.

Monday, 12/20 at 11am and 4pm pacific – “Christmas – Your Light in the Darkness” – hosted by Carter Conlon, pastor of Times Square Church in Manhattan. In this new special, He’s sharing the hope and light of Christ to give courage to live in a world that at times can feel dark.

Tuesday, 12/21 at 11am and 4pm pacific – “The Lesser Characters of Christmas” – tells the stories of Elizabeth, Zechariah, Anna and Simeon using dramatic vignettes and interviews.

Wednesday, 12/22 at 11am and 4pm pacific – “A Parkside Christmas”. It’s hosted by Alistair Begg, pastor of Parkside Church in Ohio and features Christmas songs in a variety of styles. It concludes with a brief but special message by Alistair.

Thursday, 12/23 at 11am and 4pm pacific – “Trail of Two Kings” – Focuses on the journeys of two kings: Herod, the mortal king who didn’t know God, and Jesus, the King of Kings who is God.

Friday, 12/24 at 11am and 4pm pacific – “The Son of David” – Charles Morris looks at the Gospel of Luke and the prophets to explore the question “Why is Jesus the Son of David” in this new Christmas special. Through stirring Christmas music and thoughtful commentary, the stunning answer shows the majesty of God’s sovereign plan.

Saturday, Christmas Day, 12/25 at 3am and 2pm pacific “Nativity: the Audio Dramatization of the Birth of Jesus Christ”. This nearly 3-hour-long presentation is described as “a movie for your mind.” It features the voices of many characters, sound effects and a cinematic score. You’re invited to come to the manger, and experience the power, joy, and peace of the greatest story ever told.

Plus 100% Christmas Music Through Christmas Day